DESIGNER ↑ 10 Corso Como

Stocked with the most interesting creations from the world's most innovative brands (think Comme des Garçons, Maison Martin Margiela and Alexander McQueen), this retail-come-dining complex was founded in 1990 by gallerist Carla Sozzani, and is still the most important shopping destination in Milan today. The Corso Como outlet, on Via Tazzoli, is also worth a visit. 10corsocomo.com

THE VIEW → Ceresio 7

Set on the top floor of DSquared2's headquarters on Via Ceresio, this art deco-inspired rooftop bar boasts impressive views of the city, two enormous swimming pools and a fantastic restaurant. The American Bar — where you may spot label founders the Caten twins — is the jewel in the crown, serving drinks made with homemade bitters, such as the blood orange-laced house cocktail, Ceresio Spritz. ## Shop

INTERIOR DESIGN ↑ Spazio Rossana Orlandi

Situated in a stunning former tile factory in the Magenta district, on Via Matteo Bandello, Spazio Rossana Orlandi, is a gallery and a furniture store. Though shipping can prove expensive, you might find it hard to resist one of Maarten Baas' clay dining chairs or an overhead light by Jacopo Foggini. rossanaorlandi.com

OUTERWEAR Aspesi

The Esquire fashion team pays a seasonal pilgrimage to the brand's flagship on Via Montenapoleone. Prices are worth it for their unparalleled and immaculate choice of fabrics. Windbreakers don't get more exciting than these. aspesi.com

VINTAGE Cavalli e Nastro

For the best vintage shopping, head to Cavalli e Nastro Uomo on Via Gian Giacomo Mora, near the beautiful Basilica San Lorenzo Maggiore. With perfectly preserved pieces from the last century cared for by Milan's more fashionable residents (and there are a lot of them), don't expect to leave empty handed. ## Drink

WINE N'Ombra de Vin

This cavern on Via San Marco has one extensive cellar. Think Gordon's in London, with Italian flair. nombradevin.it

MARTINI Bar Martini

Order a Milan (Martini Rosso, Aperol, gin and saffron) from D&G's cocktail bar on Corso Venezia and peacock-watch all night. dolcegabana.com

APEROL SPRITZ Fonderie Milanese

Set in a former foundry on Via Giovanale, there's a rustic vibe and the spritzes are ace. fonderiemilanesi.it
