ANNA LAUB is the founder and creative director of Prism, the eyewear and swimwear brand established in 2009. A former fashion editor, she opened the brand's first store in Marylebone, London, in May last year. prism.london.com

The Fasano Hotel Rio de Janeiro

From the perfect pool on the roof the only thing between you and the Ipanema view is a glass barrier. fasano.com.br

Shreeji newsagent's

London W1

Just up the street from our store, this is one of the best specialist newsagents in London – you can find every international Vogue, every fanzine and every art-house magazine. 020 7935 5055

Rossana Orlandi

Milan

This interiors store, which is hidden in a courtyard, is one of the most beautiful shops in the world, a treasure house of young and classic interior designers' products. rossanaorlandi.com

Sunbury Antiques Market Kempton Park Racecourse, Middlesex

It's only twice a month and you have to go very early not to miss the good bits, but this is an amazing place for anything to do with interiors. There is jewellery and fashion too. sunburyantiques.com

Petersham Nurseries

Richmond, Surrey

Everything you could ever want for your garden and more – or you can just go for coffee and cake and sit in the beautiful conservatory on a sunny day. petershamnurseries.com

Musée des Arts Décoratif bookshop Paris

I can spend hours in the bookstore here just next to the Louvre, with loads of great art, fashion and design to skim through. lesartsdecoratifs.fr
